INTRODUCTION
From 2017, the Department of Spiritual Health Care at Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust is pleased to offer a Postgraduate Certificate (PG Cert) in Health Care Chaplaincy. The course is an integration of theory and practice, providing cutting edge chaplaincy education reflecting the changing and diverse needs of the NHS, the patients, families, carers and staff. A PG Cert in Spiritual Care in Health is also offered to those not pursuing a chaplaincy career.

ACCREDITATION
Both Post Graduate Certificates are accredited by London South Bank University.

WHY STUDY AT GUY’S AND ST THOMAS’?
Guy's and St Thomas' Foundation Trust (GSTT) is one of the largest and oldest Trusts in the country with over 900 years of history. Our Trust includes Guy's Hospital, St Thomas' Hospital, Evelina London Children's Hospital and community services in Lambeth and Southwark. GSTT has been at the forefront of medical progress and innovation since its foundation and continues to have a reputation for excellence and novelty.

The Chaplaincy & Spiritual Health Care Dept consists of a large culturally-diverse Multi-Faith/Belief chaplaincy team. Our trained staff offer holistic care in particular spiritual, religious, pastoral, ethical and cultural care to patients, staff, patients’ relatives/carers and visitors. The team includes full-time, part-time, bank and honorary contract chaplains, chaplaincy volunteers, trainee chaplains and placement students.

The aim of the course is to provide an integrated theory and practice-based multi-faith/belief chaplaincy education that enables students to develop and acquire the knowledge, understanding, competence, capabilities, practical skills and core values, which shape and guide the practice of contemporary professional chaplaincy in a modern health care setting. Our lecturers have in-depth knowledge, understanding and wide experience in delivering cutting-edge health care chaplaincy. They are all seasoned practitioners and experts in their subjects.

Comments from 2017/18 students:

"It was a great week with so many top quality presenters. A lot to assimilate but all the sessions were interesting and of value to Health Care Chaplaincy"

"Very enjoyable week. I will take home vast amounts to reflect on and use in my work"
